This year the Orleans County Fair Association will be hosting our first Northeast Kingdom Equine Expo (NEKEE) event, with hopes of this becoming an annual event for the community. As part of the Orleans County Fair Association's Horse Committee, we are asking for your support. The support that you give will help us make this event a success through allowing additional promotion.

This event will host several equine-related demonstrations, providing educational and entertainment opportunities for horse enthusiasts. There will also be various vendors that will provide shopping experiences for patrons of the event.

It is our hope that this event will help the growth of the equine community in our area by providing education and entertainment for horse enthusiasts of all ages and skill levels, as well as supporting the small businesses and community members with equine related businesses.

Sincerely,

Beth Martin
